Statement for Small Business Property Tax Exemption Claim Under MCL 211.9(o); Claiming Exemption for Collection of Taxes (As of 12-31-2022)

2023 Small Business Taxpayer Personal Property Tax Exemption Changes Public Act 150 of 2021 was signed by the Governor on December 23, 2021. The Act amends the Small Business Taxpayer Personal Property Tax Exemption (MCL 211.9o) to increase the combined true cash value limit for “eligible personal property” in a local unit from $80,000 to $180,000 beginning in 2023. The exemption is required to be claimed with the local unit (city or township where the property is located) by February 21, 2023 (postmark is acceptable) by submitting the completed Form 5076 Small Business Property Tax Exemption Claim Under MCL 211.9o. Late filed forms may be filed directly with the 2023 March Board of Review prior to the closure of the March Board.

Personal Property Valued Less Than $80,000

To claim an exemption for personal property valued less than $80,000, Form 5076 must be filed with the local unit (City or Township) where the personal property is located no later than February 21, 2023 (postmark is acceptable). Late filed forms may be filed directly with the local unit March Board of Review prior to the closure of the March Board of Review. Taxpayers must contact the local unit directly to determine the March Board of Review dates. Once the exemption is granted for personal property valued at less than $80,000, the taxpayer will continue to receive the exemption until they no longer qualify for the exemption. Once they no longer qualify, the taxpayer is required to file a rescission form and a personal property statement no later than February 20th of the year that the property is no longer eligible. Failure to file the rescission form will result in significant penalty and interest as prescribed in MCL 211.9o.

Personal Property Valued Greater than or Equal to $80,000 but Less than $180,000

In order to claim an exemption for personal property valued at $80,000 or more but less than $180,000, Form 5076 along with Form 632 Personal Property Statement must be filed ANNUALLY with the local unit (City or Township) where the personal property is located no later than February 21, 2023 (postmark is acceptable). Late filed forms may be filed directly with the local unit March Board of Review prior to the closure of the March Board of Review.

If you feel you qualify for this exemption, please fill out and return the statement by February 20th (postmark is acceptable) to your local assessor. Your exemption may be denied by the local assessor if it is determined you do not qualify for this exemption.
